APRIL 2023

Monthly Meeting News

Dear Friends,

As the weather warms and the flowers begin to bloom and the leaves return to the trees, it is time for us to emerge from our winter cocoons and be more outward thinking.

Over the next couple of months, Bucks Quarter Friends will be gathering new and very gently used clothing to be used by the three Community Schools serviced by Mercer Street Friends.

Meetings are just discerning if and how they would like to participate. If you think your meeting would be interested, please contact your clerk and let them know.

We are all so blessed, I hope you find it in your heart to give back a little.

Your Coordinator,
Wendy

~ Native American Proverb

Bristol

Join Friends for their monthly worship on the 4th Sunday of the month at 11:00 am. Say hello to the folks from Redemption Church when you arrive!

Buckingham

Wishing their clerk, Bethann Morgan, healing Light as she recovers from her recent hospitalization.

Doylestown

The Meeting’s Peace and Social Concerns committee held their first meeting of the year and determined that their areas of focus would be directed toward promoting peaceful conflict resolution and advocating against Book Bans in local public schools.

Fallsington

Friends continue to meet monthly to hold a Meeting for Worship for Healing. They gather to hold in the Light all those – present or not – who have presented a specific request for healing.

Lehigh Valley

This spring the Meeting will support four girls going to school in Kenya, under the stewardship of the Social Concerns Committee. A total of $1,600 will go to these girls out of the LVMM Kenyan School Fund.

Makefield

Friend Elsie Wright helped celebrate the 50th anniversary of Chandler Hall. She also has decided that at 90+ years young it’s time to step down as the meeting’s Treasurer.

Middletown

Middletown Friends report they now have more people in person at meeting for worship than on Zoom!

Newtown

Kids in First Day School completed their second service project of the year, making 50 hygiene bags for The Help Center in Bristol.

Plumstead

Friends have already started planning for when they will be hosting Quarterly Meeting in August. What a perfect time of year to visit one of our northernmost meetings!

Quakertown

Friends can’t wait for warmer weather to try out their new air conditioning system!

Solebury

For the first time in three years, Friends held their traditional Pancake Breakfast on March 19th. The syrup tapped from their own trees was enjoyed by all.

Southampton

After mulling over their heating and cooling systems for years Friends are now coming to a sense of the meeting on how to proceed. Stay tuned!

Wrightstown

This March, Friends re-started their Spiritual Exploration Group, a small group that meets with the intention of developing a further understanding of a wide range of spiritual issues and to learn more about how others experience the spiritual life.

Yardley

Friends have been holding a game night on the second Saturday of the month. This will morph into outdoor movie nights during the summer.

Extended Worship

April 1st: This month the group will have a virtual meeting on Zoom. The day will follow the usual format of worship from roughly 9:30 to 12:30, and worship sharing from 1:00 until around 2:30 to 3:00, with a lunch break in between. The best way to stay informed is to be placed on an e-mail list to receive Zoom links for this and future Extended Worship meetings; contact Jim Strong at jmmstrong@gmail.com.

Young Adult Friends Spring Potluck

April 7th: Bust out the crockpots and dust off the salad bowl that's been hidden in the back of your cabinets all winter. Join other YAFs in West Philadelphia for fellowship, fun, and delicious food. You will receive a confirmation email with more information about the event location and host once you register; click here to register.

Online Reprise: Religious Education & Outreach Thread Gathering

April 12th: This virtual gathering brings together two areas of focus to explore the connection between religious education programs and how a meeting welcomes and includes newcomers. How can meetings prepare to receive newcomers and speak to them about Quakerism and their spiritual needs? Do we share about what is available? Are we open to new ways to offer religious education that might speak to the needs of seekers? If RE and outreach work hand in hand, what might grow? Click here to register.

Addressing Racism Thread Gathering

April 29th: Learn ways to continue to address racism, hear from Eppchez Yes of Greene Street Monthly Meeting on Noticing, and learn how to make a meaningful difference in your meeting. Click here to register.

Employment Opportunities

Executive Administrator: is a partner with the General Secretary position to ensure the administrative, logistical, and communications functions of the office are effectively managed.

March Continuing Sessions Recap

Friends met on Saturday, March 11 for Spring Continuing Sessions, with gatherings at six meetings across three states. Worship and Meeting for Business were based at Arch Street Meeting House in Philadelphia in the morning with Friends joining on Zoom; the minutes can be accessed here.

The intergenerational afternoon program was an exploration of the current Sessions theme, "Living with our neighbors, growing into beloved community." Friends played "Silent Squares"; access the directions here. Friends also explored the parable of the Good Samaritan. In July, Annual Sessions will return to The College of New Jersey for what will be a blended program, online and onsite. More information will be available soon, with registration opening before June 1.

Youth and Family

Quaker Parent Postlude

April 16th: Quaker Parent Postlude is a space for people who are currently engaged in bringing up children, to come together for worship, reflection, and connection. The focus of this 30-minute program is to have some quiet time together at the end of Sunday before a new week begins; it will be held in Quaker waiting worship. Register here.

Middle School Friends Spring Overnight

April 22-23rd: Plan ahead! Friends in grades 5 to 8 are invited to join us for a fun-filled overnight at West Chester Friends Meeting. The overnight will include a mix of indoor and outdoor activities, community-building, discussion, and worship-sharing. The cost of the trip is $20/person. Register here.

Spring Family Overnight

April 29th: Enjoy multigenerational activities for the whole family, dinner together, free time to play, bedtime stories, multigenerational worship on Sunday morning, and a chance for adults to spend time with other parents. And everyone will be home on Sunday in time to prepare for the rest of the week! This year, the overnight is open to all families with children in 8th grade and younger. Registration opens soon; check back here to register.

Concord Quarter & PYM Eco-Justice

Greening Sacred Spaces Series

April 5th: Part 2 Homegrown National Parks and the Audubon Bird Friendly Certification. Part of making 2023 the year that all Friends' institutions in PYM commit to landscaping practices that support the commonwealth of life. Members of property committees, cemetery committees, those who care for the landscaping at your site, those who love birds, butterfly and pollinator gardens should consider attending. Click here for the zoom link.

Cropwell Friends Meeting

From Prisoner of War to Pacifist

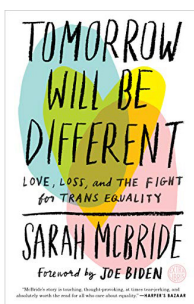

April 2nd: Quaker pacifist and World War II prisoner of war George Rubin will talk about creating a world without war. George is a member of Medford Meeting, a retired podiatrist, and has served as clerk for New York Yearly Meeting, Medford Meeting, and American Friends Service Committee's New York regional office. You can read his 2015 Friends Journal article A Letter from a Warrior here.

Gwynedd Friends Meeting

Virtual JEDI Book Club

March 28–May 23: Gwynedd Friends Meeting JEDI Working Group will be reading and discussing Tomorrow Will Be Different by Sarah McBride, one of the most prominent transgender activists. Discussions are on alternate Tuesday evenings. Contact Deb Hejl at deb.hejl@gmail.com to register to receive Zoom information.

Central Philadelphia Friends Meeting

April 22nd: Join Friends on Zoom for a FREE presentation by Greg Barnes about his book The Peace Corp: Early Days. Greg was among the first Peace Corps Volunteers with Sierra Leone One in 1961 and his memoir is frank in its admission of his own and his country's early naivety about working in the Africa of the 1960s. He says his experience with the Peace Corps is the best teacher he ever had, and, unknowingly at that time, it led to his Quaker faith. Click here for the zoom link.

THE GREATER QUAKER WORLD

Pendle Hill

First Monday Lecture

April 3rd: Pendle Hill's Friend-in-Residence Nim Njuguna shares a framework of personal exploration that has opened his eyes to the broader issues of social justice from a spiritually transformed mindset in his lecture entitled The River of Life: We Are What We Have Been Becoming. Click here to register.

A Couple Enrichment Retreat

April 14-16th: This is an in-person weekend program with experienced Couple Enrichment leaders. It is a weekend to explore with other couples patterns of decision-making in a spirit of experiment and curiosity. We will explore how decision-making can affirm our strengths, how conflict is an opportunity to deepen intimacy, and how we can uphold integrity, equality, and peace-making when we consider the questions before us. Costs range from $500 to $750 and financial assistance is available. Register here.

Café Darkness: An In-Person Writing Workshop for People of Color

April 16-20th: During this week of dedicated writing, we set writing intentions and work within compassionate community to move toward them. We will share tips and troubleshoot challenges in order to maximize our writing experience. Each day, we set goals, strategize about how to accomplish them, and share the written fruits of our labor. Cost ranges from $180 (subsidized commuter) to $775 (standard private room); financial aid is also available. Register here.

Quaker Institute: Beloved Community as Prophetic Witness

April 28–May 1st: An on-campus conference for the gathering of Friends to learn about and practice the art of building beloved community as an act of prophetic witness. Experiential workshops will explore different ways that the Religious Society of Friends is creating cultures of beloved community. This long weekend is a collaboration with a broad range of Friends and Friends' organizations, including the AFSC, FCNL, FGC, PYM, the Quaker Religious Education Collaborative, and other Quaker institutions and retreat centers. Cost ranges from $250 to $450; click here to register.

Friends Committee on National Legislation

Presentation and Lunch with New FCNL Head

April 30th: Over its 80 years, FCNL has changed leadership only five times. In 2022, Dr. Bridget Moix became its newest General Secretary. Join Friends for a FREE lunchtime virtual presentation by Bridget, who spent 25 years working on international peace and conflict issues, with a focus on US foreign policy. RSVP to helene.hilger@gmail.com would be appreciated.

Take Action

The 2002 Authorization for Use of Military Force Against Iraq (2002 Iraq AUMF) authorized war against Saddam

Hussein's Iraqi regime. It is unnecessary for ongoing military operations, but as long as it remains on the books, it is vulnerable to abuse by this or any future president. Tell Congress: Repeal the 2002 Iraq War Authorization!

Toward Right Relationship with Native Peoples

April 15th: Learn the real history of our country through the voices of Native people, European colonists, and historians. Register here.

The Indigenous Boarding Schools & Multigenerational Trauma

April 16th: Native American organizations and the U.S. Department of the Interior are asking religious institutions to conduct research on their involvement in the forced assimilation of Native children by operating Indigenous boarding schools. During the 19th and 20th centuries, almost all Christian denominations operated schools whose goals were to "Christianize and civilize the Indians," in other words annihilate Indigenous cultures. Native Americans today continue to suffer harm emanating from these schools. Several denominations, including Quakers, are now conducting research and collaborating with the DoI's investigations. Register here.

Friends Historical Library

Moore Research Fellowship

Applications are now open for a Moore Research Fellowship, which provides a research stipend to promote research that uses the resources of the Friends Historical Library and/or the Swarthmore College Peace Collection. Strong preference will be given to projects that make significant use of resources available only on-site at Swarthmore College. A stipend in the amount of $1,400 per week, for a minimum of one week and a maximum of four weeks, will be distributed to 2-6 researchers. Deadline for application is April 1, 2023. Apply here.

Friends General Conference

Employment Opportunity

Development Manager: The Development Manager works closely with the Associate Secretary for Development to plan and implement a comprehensive development program. There is strong collaboration with the communications department to ensure clear messaging is shared supporting FGC's mission and vision. There is a strong emphasis on writing and telling the stories of Friends and meetings to share the positive impact of FGC ministries. Interested? Click here to apply.

The Life Cycle of Meetings

April 4-24th: Many Quaker meetings are changing. A lot of our numbers are smaller. What are some of the ways we might adjust? What does it look like to have faith and cherish our communities while also recognizing that our energy levels are getting low? An upcoming series of conversations explores the life cycles of meetings and offers support and resources for questions rising in meetings.

Watch a video introduction to this work.

Each 90-minute consultation will include a brief presentation, the opportunity to ask questions, and an open conversation with participants. Topics include the following:

- the life cycle of meetings
- simplifying committee structures
- combining/merging meetings
- sharing/repurposing/selling buildings
- restructuring local meetings
- and laying down meetings
