

QUAKERPHERNALIA

The newsletter of the Bucks Quarterly Meeting of the Religious Society of Friends

DECEMBER 2023

Dear Friends,

I hope this holiday season brings you great joy.

This year has had both its challenges and its blessings for me, and, I'm sure for all of you as well.

I hope that you have been able to appreciate the blessings and risen to the challenges, and the blessings have made you grateful and the challenges have strengthened you.

Let's look toward the upcoming year with hope, strength, vision, and love.

I am grateful for each and every one of you.

Your Coordinator,
Wendy

Monthly Meeting News

Bristol

Bristol Friends continue to meet the 4th Sunday of each month. Stop in and say hello to their new clerk, Alisa Myles and take a turn around their new labyrinth.

Buckingham

Drive onto the meetinghouse grounds and you will see a bustle of activity at Buckingham Friends School as the building renovations are moving at incredible speed.

Doylestown

Friends from the meeting participated in Gun Violence Awareness Day, which included a Memorial To The Lost T-Shirt display. Member Lisa Wildman led Friends in song.

Fallsington

It was a disappointment that Crys Matthews had to cancel their scheduled performance in November, but a blessing that it has been rescheduled for January.

Lehigh Valley

The meeting has engaged a contractor to install new equipment to help alleviate their long standing HVAC and air quality issues, A generous anonymous $25,000 challenge gift has helped kick-start the funds to begin Phase One!

Makefield

Friends continue to meet in person for 45 minutes each First Day, and then both in person and on Zoom for their Adult Forum, which follows at 11:15 am.

Middletown

The meeting held another successful auction this year. The online-in person format has proven to be the best way to hold auctions.

Newtown

The meeting held a successful Simple Supper in November. The children discerned that they wanted to help hungry people near them, so they raised over $1700 for the Pennel Food Pantry.

Plumstead

Winter is a lovely time to visit Plumstead Meeting to enjoy the welcoming warmth of their wood burning stove. Join them for their Christmas Eve carol sing.

Quakertown

Many thanks to Quakertown Friends for hosting November Quarterly Meeting. There was plenty of coffee and desserts and we noticed that the signage was particularly good!

Solebury

Solebury Friends held a successful Open House, which included tours of the graveyard and fun activities for children and families. Their Outreach Committee has been working overtime!

Southampton

Friends are in discernment about how to improve and upgrade both their meetinghouse and the House on the Hill.

Wrightstown

Friends are deep in the planning stages for their year-long celebration of 300 years as a meeting.

Yardley

Yardley Friends engage in "Ponderings" monthly; last month the topic was: how can (or do) our Quaker values enhance interpersonal relationships?

PYM Sponsored Events

Extended Worship

Dec 2nd: This month the group will have a virtual meeting on Zoom. The day will follow the usual format of worship from roughly 9:30 to 12:30, and worship sharing from 1:00 until around 2:30 to 3:00, with a lunch break in between. The best way to stay informed is to be placed on an e-mail list to receive Zoom links for this and future Extended Worship meetings; contact Andy Hoover at dandydoover@gmail.com.

December Family Meet Up

Dec 2nd: Please join us at Mickleton Friends Meeting, Mickleton, NJ, for a cozy family gathering. There will be an intergenerational activity, time for parent/guardian worship sharing, children's activities, and dinner as a community. Pizza and beverages will be provided. Families are invited to bring a snack/side dish/dessert to share. All ages are welcome! For more information, contact Kristin Simmons, Youth Engagement Coordinator at ksimmons@pym.org. Click here to register.

Child Safety in Meetings: A Conversation about Best Practices

Dec 3rd: In order to create and sustain loving, inclusive communities, we must nurture the spiritual lives of the children and youth in our Meetings. This requires work, energy, and deep dedication from many adults. Please join for conversation about creating safe Meeting communities. We will consider what a safe community looks like, discuss best practices for designing a safety policy for a Monthly Meeting, and share thoughts and ideas. The program will be led by Kristin Simmons, PYM Youth Engagement Coordinator. Register here.

Hope, Justice and Peace: An Advent Series

Dec 4th, 11th & 18th: Join Friends for an online adult religious education series exploring Advent — the time of expectant waiting before Christmas — with scripture, discussion, guided activities, music, prayers, and readings. Each week, elements of the traditional Nativity story are lifted up through the lens of liberation theology and the participants' hopes and leadings for peace and justice in the world. A recommended resource for interested participants to read between program times is the Advent reader, Keep Watch With Me: An Advent Reader for Peacemakers. The collaboratively-written devotional features diverse contributors: black, white, LGBTQ, Latinx, Palestinian, incarcerated, Native American, Australian, Americans, Irish, South African, clergy, laity, activists, authors, and organizers. Click here to register.

PYM Middle East Collaborative

The Yearly Meeting Middle East Collaborative is open to invitations to visit your meeting. Many of the members have been to or lived in/worked in the Middle East. The website includes the timeline of Friends in the area. Contact the clerk, Sandy Rea, at drsandyrea@hotmail.com.

Arch Street Meetinghouse

Meetinghouse by Candlelight

Dec 1st: Step back into the 19th century this winter at Arch Street Meeting House and get into the holiday spirit with crafts, raffles, and light fare. Keep an eye out for William Penn himself wandering about and listen to enchanting performances from the talented students from local Quaker schools. Complimentary light fare and wine will be provided. There is a suggested donation of $10 per attendee. Register here.

Eco Justice Collaborative

Community Choice Aggregation: Boroughs are Ready for 100%.

Dec 7th: Community Choice Aggregation (CCA) is well established in more than a dozen states, and is already legal in Pennsylvania boroughs. Presenters from the CCA for PA team will provide an overview of CCA, introduce participants to local leaders from the five boroughs that have already signed an MOU, and explain how this will work in PA to help boroughs meet their commitments to acquire 100% renewable power. CCA is available to every borough in the Commonwealth. If you live in or near a borough, please consider attending. You can make a real difference in bringing more clean energy to Pennsylvania. Community Solar is not yet legal in PA, but CCA is and it just might be better! Register here.

THE GREATER QUAKER WORLD

Pendle Hill

First Monday Lecture

Dec 4th: Clearness Committees: An Introduction to Spiritual Discernment in Community for Personal and Social Transformation. The Quaker Clearness Committee is a unique process of individual and communal spiritual discernment that can support people on this journey. Valerie Brown and John Baird will share an innovative vision of the Clearness Committee based on the work of Parker J. Palmer and the Center for Courage & Renewal. Click to register.

Singing in the New Year

Dec 31st: Enjoy an alcohol-free New Year's Eve celebration, with hors d'oeuvres reception and home-cooked dinner, lively concert in the Barn, desserts, and midnight candlelight Meeting for Worship. This year, the concert will feature Annie Patterson performing and leading us in songs of celebration and renewal, giving space for healing and transformation through singing. Cost for the evening ranges from $85 to $115; register here.

Quaker Earthcare Witness

A Quaker Approach to Artificial Intelligence as Part of Earthcare

Nov 30th: In this workshop, Gray Cox will expand on the message of his recently published book Smarter Planet or Wiser Earth?: how Quakers must deal with the kinds of social change we need to address the challenges presented by the Sixth Great Extinction, Climate Change, and the threats of nuclear war and runaway technology with AI. Register here.

Quaker Religious Education Collaborative

Conversation Circles: Radical Acceptance of Children & Youth in Quaker Meetings

Nov 28th or 30th: Quakers are called to look to that of God in everyone, including children and youth in our Meetings, all of whom are in the process of exploring their identity and place in the world. How can we, as religious educators, fully accept and include children and youth whose interest, behavior, energy level, or identity, make adults Friends feel uncomfortable? How can we foster a culture of radical acceptance in our Meetings, especially to nurture and include children and youth who don't fit easily? Join this conversation to explore how we can help our meetings fully include all children in the Meeting Community.

Register for Thursday, Nov 30th at 8:00 pm

Silence and Light for Quaker Newcomers

Dec 2nd - Jan 6th: The Silence & Light eRetreat invites you to explore and practice the experience of Quaker worship and silent waiting, for an inward encounter with Inner Teacher who leads, guides, and transforms us every day. This session is offered for people who are curious about Quakers or new to Quakerism and will explore the basics of Quaker theology and practice. Cost for the four week series is a $45 pay-as-led participation fee. The eRetreat is led by Michael Levi, a member of Adelphi Friends Meeting in Maryland. For many years he has taught “An Introduction to Quakerism” to members and attenders of his Meeting and to parents of a Friends school. Register here.

Friends Peace Teams

Assimilate or Be Exterminated

Dec 4th: Presented by David Raymond (Mi'kmaw descendant). For much of their existence, the Quaker Yearly Meetings of Turtle Island and Britain pursued the eradication of Indigenous Peoples' cultures and matriarchies as a means to save Indigenous Peoples from the supposed necessity of extermination (mass killing). David Raymond will examine Quaker writings and deeds from the late 18th century to the present and will offer reflections on the impact of the truth on his faith journey. David is a Quaker from Ontario (Canada). He is of European and Mi'kmaw ancestry and is reconnecting to Mi'kmaw culture. This program is co-sponsored by Decolonizing Quakers. There is a suggested donation of $20-$50. Click here to register.

Quaker Call to Action

Protect Our Elections

Dec 5th: The Big Lie Is Not Dead: A Timely Update on the work of Protect Our Election to support and protect local election officials. You will receive a Zoom link a day or two before the call. To ensure receipt, please add info@quakercall.net to your contacts. If you do not see the Zoom invite, please check your spam folder! Register here.

Friends Committee on National Legislation

Take Action

FCNL is a fabulous resource for how to contact your legislators and let them know how you feel about the day's pressing issues. With regard to the war in the Middle East, they offer:

More war and weapons won't bring peace. In the face of growing violence, lawmakers must:

- Publicly call for a ceasefire, de-escalation, and respect for international law.
- Protect lives—those of the hostages and all civilians, including the roughly 1 million children who live in Gaza.

- Address the root causes underlying this explosion of violence, including decades of institutionalized oppression and collective punishment of Palestinians through brutal military occupation and a 16-year Gaza blockade.

Urge Congress to call for an immediate ceasefire, de-escalation, and restraint to prevent further civilian harm in Israel and the occupied Palestinian territories. Click here to be connected to your elected officials.
