11:00-12:00 Adult Program on Immigration. Our guest speakers will be Jenny Isaacs and Leslie Richards, both DFM members and highly informed immigration activists. Leslie and Jenny are co-founders of Immigrant Rights Action/Grupo de Acción and serve as Board Chair and Director respectively. IRAGdA is a 100% volunteer neighborhood collective documenting ICE activity in and around Doylestown and offering immediate support to community members threatened with deportation. Since its founding in March, 2017 this collective has: made 60 attorney referrals; provided over a hundred accompaniments to ICE supervision visits, immigration court proceedings, and legal consultations; and supported 35 cases financially with a crowd-sourced legal defense fund. In cooperation with Welcoming the Stranger, it is currently sponsoring a series of Know Your Rights workshops and immigration clinics throughout Bucks County. The group's legislative advocacy team has secured meetings with municipal, state, and federal representatives to seek assurance that the constitutional rights of all Bucks County residents are consistently upheld. Leslie & Jenny will present a brief overview of key immigration concepts and use the work of their group to illustrate the urgency of reforming our long-broken immigration system as well as supporting our neighbors currently being impacted by enforcement.

REMEMBERING HOLLY

Bucks Quarterly Meeting suffered a great loss earlier this month when our Coordinator of many years, Holly Olson, passed away after an extended battle with ovarian cancer.

The outpouring of support and affection for Holly as her illness worsened last month is a testament to the impact she had on the Quarter and the broader Quaker community. Holly helped weave all of us in the Quarter together. She kept us informed about what was happening in the Quarter. She connected us with one another and with other Quaker resources.

She was quick to offer a hand, or lend an ear, to those who were faltering or ill. And she always spread warmth and love.

Holly's absence will be felt for a long time. Let us hope that the lessons she taught us help make that absence more bearable.

A memorial service for Holly will be held on Saturday, June 22, 2019, at 11 a.m. at Middletown Friends Meeting, 453 West Maple Avenue, Langhorne, PA.

- Boris Simkovich, Acting Clerk, Bucks Quarter.
