The newsletter of the Bucks Quarterly Meeting of the Religious Society of Friends

MAY 2024

Dear Friends,

A couple of weeks ago I travelled to Maine to see my eldest daughter and to view the total eclipse of the sun. I had been planning this visit since I realized that the path of totality would pass right near where my daughter lived.

Friends asked “what happens if it’s cloudy and you can’t see anything?” My response was “then I will have a nice visit with my daughter.”

We were fortunate to have perfect 65 degree weather and a clear blue sky. When the moon passed in front of the sun and I got to see the corona for over 2 minutes, I was filled with such a sense of awe and wonder. It was truly a spiritual experience never to be forgotten.

Your Coordinator,
Wendy

Monthly Meeting News

Bristol

Things are hopping at Bristol Meeting! They held a successful Tree Celebration in April and are looking forward to celebrating World Labyrinth Day in May.

Buckingham

Buckingham Friends are looking forward to the warmer weather so that they can once again hold meeting for worship in their burial ground.

Doylestown

The meeting held an Easter breakfast this year, and work has begun on the meeting vegetable garden; planting will begin once the threat of frost has passed.

Fallsington

Fallsington Friends hosted singer/songwriter John Flynn as part of their social justice concert series.

Lehigh Valley

Friends are looking ahead and planning a meeting-wide community retreat in 2025. They are also celebrating their 75th anniversary of being a monthly meeting this June.

Makefield

Makefield Friends held a successful Spring Celebration concert featuring Paige Melton, who also happens to live in the meeting’s caretaker’s house.

Middletown

Middletown Friends continue to hold a mid-week in person meeting for worship on Wednesday evenings at 7:00 pm at their meetinghouse on Maple Avenue in Langhorne.

Newtown

With the onset of spring, Newtown Friends are turning their thoughts to landscaping on the property after their successful parking lot renovation.

Plumstead

Plumstead Friend Carol Ann Gray was the featured speaker at the Plumstead Historical Society’s April Meeting. She spoke about early Quakers and meetinghouse architecture and how it relates to our testimonies.

Quakertown

Quakertown Friends gave their meetinghouse the best spring cleaning it has had in a very long time - you can see out the windows now! They report having no damage from the recent earthquake in NJ.

Solebury

Friends recently had damage to their shed’s roof from a falling tree; they are in the process of getting permits and locating vintage wood for the repair.

Southampton

Southampton Friends spent a day live staking trees on their property.

Wrightstown

The April topic of the Spiritual Exploration Group was Forgiving, where they considered individual capacities to forgive, and the teachings and experiences that inform individual beliefs about forgiving.

Yardley

Friends just applied for and received a Bucks Quarter Outreach grant to fund a Gratitude Day that will be held in June.

10:00 am Program: Racial Justice: Persistence and Direction

George Floyd's murder almost 4 years ago, coming as the pandemic was laying bare implicit racism in the culture, sparked a vibrant public conversation about how black lives needed to matter before all lives could. Quakers in our Quarter responded with a number of public "vigils." The vigil at Southampton Friends Meeting has persisted, but has struggled with discerning the direction of the Meeting's corporate action to promote racial justice. Join us in delving into the process of sustaining efforts to combat racial injustice despite the natural tendency to move on to more "pressing" concerns. Kevin Young of the Bucks County Anti-Racism Coalition will speak briefly on the topic of the program, followed by a panel of vigil participants who will speak to their motivation for sticking with the vigil and benefits derived from long term attendance.

11:00 am–noon Meeting for Worship

12:00 pm Lunch break: bring a bag lunch; beverages provided by Southampton Friends

Fallsington Friends Meeting

Living in a Time of War: Gaza/Israel Revisited/ Ukrainian Refugees in our Community

Apr 28th: Join us for a presentation by Jim and Debbie Fine (zooming from Washington State) on Gaza and Israel on the present situation and the road ahead. Zhenya Pevzner will have resources on hand about how to support Ukrainian refugees in our community. We will explore ways to navigate the news when trying to understand these tragic conflicts and ways that Friends' organizations are providing humanitarian aid. Click here for the zoom link.

Spiritual Life Program

Apr 28th: Joyce Hinnefeld will introduce the work of Shining Light (www.shining-light.com), a Pennsylvania-based organization that works with incarcerated individuals in multiple states, “providing innovative, evidence-based reentry programming that transforms the lives of participants and prison environments, resulting in lower recidivism, better neighbors, and stronger communities.” Joyce works as a facilitator with the Shining Light Academy program, which features class sessions addressing character strengths, creative writing, playwriting, and more, and culminates in the creation of “Wellness Recovery Action Plans,” or WRAPS. She also helps with creative writing pages for Shining Light's bimonthly magazine, The Loop. We will view some of Shining Light's powerful videos and perhaps listen to excerpts from recent episodes of the podcast Chainz 2 Changed, produced at the North Dakota State Penitentiary, featuring several members of the Shining Light staff. Founder Jeff Bohn and other staff members may join us as well, if schedules allow. Click here for the zoom link.

Legacy Giving: Let Your Life Speak

Apr 28th: Join Solebury Friends for an informative presentation on how to have your legacy live on, given by Mimi Blackwell, Director of Philanthropic Services at Friends Fiduciary. Mimi Blackwell is a seasoned planned giving professional with Friends Fiduciary who will provide an informative free workshop about the basics and benefits of bequests, charitable gift annuities, charitable trusts, and socially responsible investing. You don't need to be wealthy a “certain age” to make a legacy gift, you just need a plan!

Looking for Flea Market Volunteers

Yardley Meeting is looking for some extra helpers for our Flea Market on Saturday, September 7. The flea market is a great community event where a lot of people appreciate an event hosted by Quakers. Our numbers are a bit smaller now and we can use help mainly with parking, working in the food area, setting up and breaking down. If interested, contact Linda Jacobs Snyder at linda6stn@gmail.com.

Wrightstown Celebrates 300 Years of History
Saturday, May 4th

Please join us for Wrightstown Friends' 300th birthday celebration! Come and see the historic meetinghouse, listen to music from local group Fools & Prophets and be entertained by the Give and Take Jugglers. A highlight of the celebration will be the chance to meet “Edward Hicks,” the renowned painter famous for “The Peaceable Kingdom,” who was a member of the Wrightstown Quaker community from 1814-1820. This immersive experience will bring history to life, connecting attendees with the vibrant past of the Wrightstown Friends Meeting.

The event is free and open to the public. Guests are encouraged to wear comfortable walking shoes and bring lawn chairs to enjoy the day's festivities in comfort. This is a rain or shine family friendly event.

Statement on the Violence in Gaza and Israel

As Quakers who worship that of God in every person of all religious and national affiliations, we are heartbroken by the unceasing atrocities and dehumanizing brutality perpetuated in Gaza and in Israel.

We condemn both the violent Hamas attack and the indiscriminate Israeli response, given the large disparity between the resources of both groups. Together we mourn the loss of each child, each civilian, each soldier, and we grieve for those suffering from the trauma inflicted by terror and bombardment. We pray for the safe return of hostages and for the preservation of Palestinian and Israeli families.

No peace can ever be achieved through violence; therefore, we call for an immediate cease-fire and for a more vigorous commitment to productive diplomacy. This enduring conflict bears witness to the world that hostility breeds only displacement, hunger, injury, more hostility, and ever-widening global instability. Immediate humanitarian aid must reach those living in ever-present peril.

We call upon our government to cease supplying arms and to employ every diplomatic effort to ensure the transport of basic human provisions and medical aid for everyone in dire need. We call for Friends to never cease listening to all voices. Recognizing that the underpinnings of this multifaceted conflict lie deeply rooted in past harm, we call upon all governments and international agencies to begin the long, difficult, but essential process of peace-building. We applaud the efforts of both Palestinian and Israeli peace-building groups who continue their efforts amid the most grave circumstances. We are aware of and affirm the process of the South African government in bringing the issues of genocide to the International Court of Justice.

Peace is the highest form of justice, and as Quakers, we answer the call of our testimony to pursue that peace.

Extended Worship

May 4th: This month the group will have a virtual meeting on Zoom. The day will follow the usual format of worship from roughly 9:30 to 12:30, and worship sharing from 1:00 until around 2:30 to 3:00, with a lunch break in between. The best way to stay informed is to be placed on an e-mail list to receive Zoom links for this and future Extended Worship meetings; contact Andy Hoover at dandydoover@gmail.com.

PYM Young Friends - New Program

May 3rd & 19th: Youth in grades 8 through 12 are invited to participate in a new PYM Young Friends pilot program where we are seeking to create a program that will focus on getting to know other teens, building community, and having fun together! Gatherings will take place twice a month throughout the spring, with some in-person and some on Zoom. Please share this flyer with your community!

Workshops will focus on topics such as Environmental Advocacy, Conscientious Objection, Queer Theology, and other topics of interest to Young Friends as they seek to live out their Quaker faith in the world. As they will be providing ministry – sharing their time and energy in the development of this program – a stipend will be offered. In return, we ask them to commit to a sustained and thoughtful involvement throughout the spring. Locations of in-person gatherings are TBD and will take travel for participants into account. Register here.

Program Schedule

May 3 to 5 – Camp Swatara Weekend!

Spring Family Overnight at Camp Dark Waters

May 11th: Families with children in 8th grade and younger are invited to join us for a Spring Family Overnight at Camp Dark Waters! There will be activities for the whole family, community meals, free time to play, bedtime stories, multigenerational worship on Sunday morning, and a chance for adults to spend time with other parents. Register here. For more information, please contact Kristin Simmons, Youth Engagement Coordinator at ksimmons@pym.org

Religious Education Community of Practice Check-in

May 7th: Friends are invited to join in on conversations for anyone serving on religious education committees, working with children and youth in their meeting, and people who are parents or caregivers. These are casual gatherings where we can share ideas, resources, and questions. Facilitated by Melinda Wenner Bradley, Director of Program and Religious Life. Click here to register. After registering, you will receive a confirmation email containing information about joining the meeting.

Creating a Playbook for Climate Action

The updated Playbook for Climate Action was shared at Spring Continuing Sessions. Click here to access a digital copy. Individuals, households, meetings and groups in Philadelphia Yearly Meeting are invited to use this tool filled with a stock of ideas, tactics and plans to create their own game plan for addressing climate change.

Climate Cafe: A Place for Support and to Report

May 9th: Climate Witness Stewards invite all interested Quakers in Philadelphia Yearly Meeting to join us to share climate action information and hope from your meeting. Some Monthly Meetings have already designated liaisons to share information about how their Meeting is acting to mitigate the climate crisis. Whether your Meeting has a climate liaison yet or not, we warmly invite you to join us for the next online potluck to share both climate activities and needs. Click this link to register. After registering, you will receive a confirmation email containing information about joining the meeting.

Arch Street Meetinghouse

The Radical Empathy of Anthony Benezet

May 9th: The acknowledged father of the transatlantic movement to abolish slavery, Benezet used the persecution he had suffered to inform his perspective on “others.” He became a champion of not only African Americans, but of women, indigenous people, disadvantaged humans and also animals. Hear how this devoted Quaker connected his outsized compassion with a clear-eyed strategy to change the world. This is an in-person event and there is parking available behind the meetinghouse; register here.

Monthly Meeting of Friends of Philadelphia

Inclusion & Belonging in Quakerism

May 26th: During this program facilitated by Inaara Shiraz, Philadelphia Yearly Meeting’s Inclusion and Belonging Coordinator, we will explore ways in which Friends can center ourselves in the practice of inclusivity and belonging. We will explore the topics of community building and engaging with each other through a framework of love. No prior registration required. Please note that the Zoom link for the event will go live on archstreetfriends.org/calendar the day of the event.

now thru May 9th: No registration required! Join us for Thursday Community Evenings in the Art Studio this spring!

Quaker Institute: Living Our Testimonies in "The Fierce Urgency of Now"

May 2nd-5th: An on-campus gathering to explore how we can meet this political moment as Friends, individually and collectively. As we face the illumination and escalation of longstanding structures of violence both in the U.S. and globally, and prepare for the 2024 US elections, Pendle Hill invites to explore the role of our communities in the context of our current political moment. Cost ranges from $250 to $750; register here for commuter; register here for housing.

First Monday Lecture

May 6th: Graffiti as Witness: The Art and Activism of a Quaker Pirate. Join Friend Todd Drake as he shares his lifelong journey and witness as a visual artist and social justice activist. He will speak to how he has been shaped by this practice, from making art with children in the West Bank to posting graffiti on the streets of New York City. Register here.

May Reading Group

May 15th: this group focuses on Pendle Hill pamphlets and other Quaker readings. This month we will be reading the pamphlet, Boycott, Divestment, and Sanctions? A Quaker Zionist Rethinks Palestinian Rights (PHP #445) by Steve Chase. This pamphlet, written in 2017, explores the author's discernment journey from being a well-meaning, but ill-informed Zionist to someone who began listening to the voices of Jewish and Israeli dissidents, as well as the voices of nonviolent Palestinian resisters to the US-backed Israeli system of military occupation and apartheid. Earth Quaker Action Team

Meeting for Worship with Attention to Leadership for a Livable Future

May 2nd: Vanguard continues to be the world's number one investor in fossil fuels, with about $269 billion invested in fossil fuel companies and over $180 billion invested in fossil fuel expansion alone. Under the leadership of CEO Tim Buckley, it has also decreased support for environmental and social justice action at the companies in which it invests, and defended leaving its largest climate commitment. Now that Buckley has announced he will retire at the end of 2024, Vanguard has an important opportunity to change course. Quakers, other people of faith, and those committed to the kind of leadership needed to create a livable planet for all of us will join together for a worshipful action to pray that Vanguard seize this opportunity. All are invited to join us! To participate in person Vanguard headquarters in Malvern, PA, register here.
