In addition, they shared poems, drawings, and portions of their autobiographies with incarcerated women at Pennsylvania's Muncy State Correctional Institution, communicating via U.S. Mail and/or the prison messaging system, and invited their partners to produce and share similar work. Friends Committee on National Legislation

Annual Meeting

Join Quakers and friends this November for worship, learning, fellowship, and action. The gathering will be based in Washington, D.C., and span the country.

At FCNL's Annual Meeting, Friends from across the country join in fellowship and worship as we seek unity on important matters that affect us all. FCNL's General Committee makes decisions that guide the organization's approach and policies moving forward. Through the Quaker Public Policy Institute, hundreds of advocates lobby their federal officials to advance just public policies.

This year's meeting will be held Thursday, November 17 through Sunday, November 20.

During that time the General Committee will consider FCNL business along with time in large and small group worship, conversations with FCNL staff, and workshops to build skills and engage deeply with our community.

Virtual attendees will be able to join selected workshops and worship, as well as plenary programming and business sessions. They will also be able to join D.C.-based lobby visits virtually.

If you plan to attend in person, registration deadline is October 19th. They have reserved a block of rooms at the Hyatt. To take advantage of the conference rate, click here to make your reservation by Oct. 28, 2022. Registration officially closes Wednesday, Nov. 9 at midnight EST.

Pendle Hill

November Programs & Workshops

Land Reparations: A Journey of the Heart: Wed, Nov 2, 7:30–9:00 pm - Land Acknowledgement highlights the significance of understanding that the land on which we live, work, and worship is land to which its original inhabitants belonged and from whom it was stolen. This is only a first step in healing the injuries a pervasive settler-colonist culture inflicted on the Indigenous peoples. This webinar extends our conversation from Land Acknowledgement to Land Reparation.

Embracing Spiritual Gifts: a First Monday Lecture Monday Nov 7, 7:30–9:00 pm - As Friends, we often say that "we are all ministers," but too rarely do we prepare ourselves to recognize, welcome, and nurture gifts of ministry among us. This First Monday Lecture invites Friends to do just that through an exploration of spiritual gifts. The lecture is presented by Adria Gulizia, a lawyer, mediator, teacher, and mother who carries a concern for how Friends' traditional faith and practice translate into an increasingly unstable, atomized, and uncertain world.

Friends' Decision-Making and Clerking: Participating in Meetings for Business with Joy and Confidence

November 18-20: An in-person weekend workshop with Steve Mohlke on clerking skills and principles.

This is an opportunity for both new and experienced clerks of Friends' meetings and committees to meet and think together about the role of presiding clerk. Friends will leave the weekend with new energy and enthusiasm for being a clerk, feeling well grounded in both the theoretical and the practical. There will be handouts to follow along during the program, exercises, and opportunities to share experiences, with most work being done in a whole group setting. Cost ranges from $395 to $505; financial aid is available. Click here to register.

Leo reported that the committee approved updating their QuickBooks software to a cloud-based model; the committee has not identified a rising clerk; the committee brought request for Bill Dockhorn to join audit committee – APPROVED.

Annual Report – Yardley – Marna Matthews (full report attached):

Special Minute – Quakertown MM, re Roe v Wade (minute attached) Lisa Uchrin: Quakertown Monthly Meeting is asking you to support our belief that a woman has the absolute right to control her own body and to make reproductive decisions within the privacy of her own counsel, the counsel of her doctor and the guidance of the Spirit. Although Quakertown Monthly Meeting is in the State of New Jersey, where, presently, our Governor and our legislators are working to protect a woman's right to control her own body and her right to privacy, we are still concerned about our fellow Americans whose rights have been grossly compromised through the Supreme Court's recent reversal of its 1974 decision in Roe v. Wade. Access to safe, legal, reproductive care is a fundamental human right and a necessity to protect women from the dangers of forced pregnancies or illegal abortions.

Discussion: Clerk tests sense of meeting: at this point in time, can we support this minute as amended? APPROVED (with Makefield Friend standing aside).

Clerk asks for committee to recommend further action; an ad-hoc committee was formed to explore what steps, if any, the Quarter would like to take in support of this minute. Friends who volunteered were Wendy Kane (Newtown), Bethann Morgan (Buckingham), Lisa Uchrin (Quakertown), Marna Matthews (Yardley) and Terry Christensen (Yardley). Wendy volunteered to act as convener.

Audit report – FYs ending 2020, 2021, 2022 – Bill Daly – Bill notes that for a variety of reasons we have gone without an audit for three years; however, given the hour, we will ask the audit committee to resume its work expeditiously and revisit this issue at our next meeting.

Announcements – Quakertown recommends Pendle Hill Pamphlet Radical Transformation; the coordinator announces the Peace Fair and volunteers to deliver yard signs to monthly meetings.

Closing Worship – There being no further business before us, the meeting settled in worship at 3:47 PM and was adjourned at 3:50 PM.

Our next gathering will be on the 20th Day, Eleventh Month, 2022, under the care of Lehigh Valley Monthly Meeting.
