August Quarterly Meeting

Bucks Quarter held Quarterly Meeting under the care of Newtown Meeting via Zoom on August 16. There were about 100 Friends in attendance throughout the day. It began with an inspiring program organized by the Newtown's Peace and Justice Committee. They asked the youth of the Quarter to submit short videos with their thoughts on racial and social justice. That video is available here on YouTube. Please take the time to watch and share as you feel led. Meeting for Worship with Attention to Business included regular reports from the Coordinator and Treasurer, as well as annual reports from monthly meetings and Bucks Food for Friends. The documents can be found here. The next Quarterly Meeting is scheduled for November 15 under the care of Quakertown Meeting.

Black Lives Matter Vigils

Three monthly meetings in Bucks Quarter have regularly scheduled vigils to demonstrate their support for racial equality and social justice:

Southampton Meeting holds a vigil on the grounds of their meetinghouse located at 710 Gravel Hill Road, Southampton. They gather on Sundays from 4 to 6 PM. Bring a sign, a chair, a mask and your enthusiasm.

Newtown Meeting has been holding silent Black Lives Matter vigils along State Street in Newtown every other Friday. The next three vigils are scheduled for August 28, September 11 and September 25. Friends are asked to gather at Newtown meetinghouse (parking available) at 4:30 pm. At 5 pm the group walks to State Street and spreads out socially distant. The vigil lasts one hour. Bring a sign, wear a mask.

Lehigh Valley Meeting holds their vigil at the meetinghouse, 4116 Bath Road, Bethlehem, every Friday during the lunch hour - noon to 1 pm. Join as you feel led.

Social Justice Signs Available

AFSC has posters you can download for free and print yourself https://www.afsc.org/posters

The Peace Center has been gifted a number of lawn signs that we are making available for purchase at $10 each. Proceeds benefit the programs of The Peace Center. You can pick them up Monday – Friday, 10:00 am – noon or call 215-750-7220 x 16 for special arrangements.

Philadelphia Yearly Meeting Make an end of fiscal year gift

PYM's fiscal year ends on September 30 and if you haven't made your annual gift yet it's not too late. Your support is needed so that they can continue to provide the services and programs you have come to expect, even during our current pandemic situation. At the very beginning of the lock down

Yearly Meeting helped Friends by providing up to date information concerning how to keep Yearly Meeting our meeting communities safe and Annual Sessions moved seamlessly to a new and innovative online format. Please send your donation to PYM, 1515 Cherry Street, Philadelphia, PA 19102, or go to pym.org/donate to donate online. You can also make a gift to your own monthly meeting at the same time. Better yet, set up a recurring gift. Ouestions? Contact Grace Sharples Cooke, Associate Secretary for Advancement and Relationship at gscooke@pym.org.

Quakers The Quiet Revolutionaries

Already worked your way through Netflix? How about some PBS! In recognition of World Quaker Day, the documentary Quakers - The Quiet Revolutionaries will be shown locally on WHYY on Sunday, October 6 at 6:00 pm.

Way Opens Wellness Mindfulness Based Stress Reduction

Amy Ward Brimmer, Fallsington Meeting, is offering her classic 8-week MBSR Foundations course virtually beginning October 1. MBSR has been helping people free themselves of toxic stress and wake up to their innate potential for calm and personal power. It teaches you how to relate differently to the things that stress you out, helping you develop the ability to be non-judgmental, compassionate, patient, present, and aware. Give yourself the chance to learn how to radically change your experience of daily living. MBSR has been scientifically proven to reduce peoples' stress levels and their ability to build peace of mind and heart through the skills they learn in the program.

Find out if MBSR is right for you; attend one of two FREE information sessions, What is MBSR and How Can it Help Me? on September 12 at 11:00 am or September 17 at 7:00 pm. More information about MBSR and all offerings from Way Opens Wellness can be found at https://wayopenswellness.com/schedule

Pendle Hill Divine Exploration: A Spiritual Journey for Women

Take a sacred journey through the feminine aspects of the Divine. Learn how to use storytelling, play, art, and meditation as natural excavation tools. Examine sacred sources. Identify uniquely feminine aspects of nature. At the end of the exploration, participants can use their experiences and discoveries to cultivate an authentic spiritual practice that is in alignment with their personal beliefs and reflective of their personal being.

This virtual workshop is offered September 18-20 via Zoom. Cost is $100; financial assistance is available. Register for this event here.

In Memoriam

In August, Solebury Friends suffered the loss of Marilyn Lanctot.

Please inform your Coordinator of losses suffered at your monthly meetings

Philadelphia Yearly Meeting Granting Groups

The current pandemic has had an impact on many Friends' current and future financial status. PYM has numerous grants available to Friends that may prove to be helpful during these times:

Aging Assistance Granting Group: Elderly PYM members in financial need may apply for grants to assist with their basic needs or to make it possible to live in retirement facilities, or to remain in their own homes. There are no deadlines; applicants are encouraged to apply when assistance is needed. Granting guidelines may be found here. Contact PYM's Care and Aging Coordinator, George Schaefer, at gschaefer@pym.org.

Greenleaf Granting Group provides grants and loans to elderly Quakers, and those in sympathy with Quakers, who are of modest means and in need of assistance to meet their housing needs and other costs of living. Individuals who are 62 years of age or older can apply. There are usually two deadlines every year, on May 1 and October 31, and for the duration of the COVID-19 pandemic, email applications are preferred; email grants@PYM.org. For details on eligibility, consult the Greenleaf Granting Group Guidelines

Anna T. Jeanes Cremation Fund was created by philanthropist Anna T. Jeanes and given to Green Street Meeting to encourage the practice of cremation. The fund reimburses cremation costs of members of all Monthly Meetings of Philadelphia Yearly Meeting up to $800. You can download an application form here.

PYM Annual Sessions A Virtual Success

For the first time in our 340 year history, due to the continuing worldwide pandemic, instead of gathering our community together under one roof, we joined together virtually on Zoom. Instead of choosing a few workshops to attend over the five day period, Friends had six weeks to attend dozens of workshops.

The Yearly Meeting wisely made the decision early that it would not be safe for us to hold Annual Sessions as scheduled at The College of New Jersey. But between the Community Engagement Team and the Sessions Planning Committee, a new and innovative way was discerned for us to meet safely as a spiritual community.

Children and families, Middle School and Young Friends reported their time together included playing, singing, laughing, and being close to Spirit. Epistles were written.

We gathered together as a yearly meeting to worship and conduct business, but instead of being in a plenary space, we were in individual zoom windows. Again, epistles were written by the Young Adult Friends community, and our Friends community as a whole.

A great big thank you to the time and effort our yearly meeting staff put into this virtual event. I'm sure there were hiccups along the way, but they were handled with such professionalism and grace that they were not noticeable to those of us who had the privilege to attend.
